

Motion to Withdraw Chapter 7 Bankruptcy Filing/Dismiss Case

Re: Thomas Lee Cole

Case: 16-71348-SCS

I humbly request that the court withdraw my bankruptcy filing as soon as possible. I misfiled this case on incorrect information I received. I am facing a lawsuit possibly from a car accident I was in over the summer. I have not been sued yet nor is there any pending case. The debt from any judgement is not currently present. I am under a heavy burden of consumer debt as well but it is not my reason for filing. Creditors may file suit against me which I will deal with in a case by case situation. With any luck I will be able to settle or arrange a suitable payment plan.

In regards to this current voluntary petition is was filed is haste and fear. I need a lawyer to sort everything out and can ill afford one. I also don't think my current situation no matter how bad I am in debt does not currently merit bankruptcy protection.

I also received paper work instructing I must complete a financial management course which I can also at this time not afford.

For these reasons I am unable to proceed forward with filing for chapter 7 bankruptcy.

I may have to refile down the road but will do so with legal assistance or do so better informed.

I apologize for any inconvenience to the court.

Sincerely,
